ANZAC Day 2009: Service at Splendour Rock

The Nepean Bushwalking Club together with Bill Sanday will again host the ANZAC Day Service at Splendour Rock.

This splendid and evocative location at Mount Dingo in the Wild Dog Mountains together with Bill Sanday leading the Service is a memorable occasion for bushwalkers to experience. Confederation's Bushwalkers' War Memorial plaque, unveiled in 1948 by Paddy Pallin, is dedicated to those young bushwalkers who lost their lives in World War II.

Be there - you won't forget . . .
